

1. Use white cards for all entries as all Exhibitors must be classified as Novice to qualify for participation in this show.
2. Each entry will be eligible for only one award.
3. Only Judges will be allowed in the awards area during final award placements. The head judge may decide not to award ribbon to certain varieties if they deem them to be below show quality.

6. Each container/cup must have only one bloom and must show either one or two leaves. There are no categories for sprays, seedlings or sports.
7. Novice Exhibitors – growers or exhibitors who have not won more than three awards at the head table of any camellia show (this includes prior PCC Novice Shows).

Camellia Plant Sales

10 am – 3 pm

Established in 1937, our members continue on with the tradition of fostering the education of camellia care, propagation and exhibition for generations.

On the third Tuesday of the month, our Club meetings offer speakers and demonstrations with many opportunities for hands on experiences. The Camellia season begins in September and goes through April with programs on camellias, gibbing, air-layering, grafting, and bloom harvesting for show winners.

Pensacola Camellia Club Community Show Rules

1. This show is not an ACS regulation show. However, we will be using the rules and regulations concerning procedures and judging of ACS shows to familiarize the public with the operation of an ACS show. The decisions of the head judge will be final.
2. Entries will be received from 9:00 AM until 11:30 AM on Saturday. Judging will begin as soon as practical once show entry is closed. Unlike an ACS regulation show - All aspects of the show are open to the public. We encourage visitors to listen and ask questions while maintaining a little space for us to demonstrate.
3. The show is open to any Novice camellia grower/exhibitor. Exhibitors are encouraged to place their own blooms.

The authority for bloom classifications will be the 2024 Edition of the SCCS Camellia Nomenclature, the 1981 Historical Nomenclature, The Camellia Nomenclature Supplement, or the ACS Website Listing subsequent registrations. Cultivars with multiple names will be entered under the preferred name in the Camellia Nomenclature. When a camellia variety is listed in two sizes (e.g., ‘small to medium’) it will be judged in the smaller size category unless specifically marked for the larger size. The only exception will be blooms registered as “miniature to small” which will be judged as small. Only blooms registered as ‘miniature’ shall be judged as miniature.

ACS entry cards for classifying blooms will be available at the show and should be completed consistent with Nomenclature or ACS Journal descriptions cited above.
